President's Message: Jim's Journal

Welcome to the start of another fun filled year of OCWS events. Bill Redding has put together some outstanding wines for the November Cabernet Sauvignon Mini-Tasting. He has also put together an exciting Holiday Dinner Dance. This event always has good food, great wine, and dancing. Our last event of the year is the Winemakers Group Holiday Potluck.

As we prepare for 2016, Rich Skoczylas has lined up four Winery Program events. Our Winery Program events allow a winery to showcase their wines, answer member questions, and at the end of the event, sell wines that were tasted during that event at a discounted price.

The 2015-2016 Board of Director responsibility assignments have been completed. Please refer to the subsequent article in this newsletter for more information. If anyone is interested in volunteering for any of these events, please contact the appropriate Director.

History of the Orange County Wine Society

As the Orange County Wine Society celebrates its 40th Anniversary, this 2015-2016 year's edition of The Wine Press will feature the Wine Society's history. About ten years ago, long time member and Past President, Larry Graham, took the initiative to gather and author the information from the organization's members. We are in the process of getting a committee together that will work on gathering and updating the history of the last decade. If you are interested in sharing memories or serving on this committee, please contact Michelle Philo at winepress@ocws.org.

~ The Wine Society is Born ~

It all started at Brant and Kathi Horton's wine retail store in Orange called Brant's Wine Rack. The Hortons hosted monthly meetings of home winemakers and wine enthusiasts to informally discuss wine and winemaking. Starting in 1976, the group was called the Orange County Wine Guild and included Bud and D Aust, Judi (Collins) Brady, and Jim Graver among its nineteen founding members.

The OCWS Board of Directors has hired a new website company and we expect to have the new website up and running by March 2016. Meanwhile, we have hired a replacement website administrator to take over Judy Fox's website administrator duties during this interim period. We will continue to provide more information as it become available.

New OCWS office hours are 9 am to 2 pm, Monday through Friday. In addition, the OC Fair and Event Center has established new parking restrictions for OCWS and OCWS members. Please refer to the subsequent article in this newsletter for more information on parking restrictions. These parking restrictions will also be placed on the OCWS website.

In closing, I encourage everyone to drink responsibly and use a designated driver at all of our events and during this holiday season. I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

Featured Member of the Month: Bill Forsch

Every so often one person touches many with their kindness and willingness to always lend a hand. Such is the case of Bill Forsch who, with his warm heart, patience and generosity, has volunteered time and time again. Bill is best known to always jump in to help with the demanding and time consuming tasks that make events happen.

His talent for planning and persistence consistently brings great results.

With the support of his loving wife, Noel, who is always by his side working tirelessly too, Bill spends countless hours behind the scenes as a moving force in the Cooks Caucus perfecting recipes, budgeting, shopping, decorating, arriving early and staying late to assure the success of an event.

His dedication, coupled with a great sense of humor and ever present smile, makes him one great volunteer and friend to the OCWS.

Bill is also a major force in the Winemakers Group. This year he brought a new seminar to the OC Fair which he co-created in 2013 and which had already become a huge hit with the winemakers. He could be found every Saturday morning throughout the OC Fair presenting his class "3x3 in 3 – Kit Wine in Virtually No Space and Time". He also supports the group by handling the sourcing of grapes from Lucas and Lewellen Winery in Santa Barbara. Not only did he make the 8 hour round trip five times this year to get grapes for four varietals totaling more than four tons of grapes, but in thanks to the winery he gifted them with a trunk full of his now famous, pickles and okra. As if this is not enough, he also suggested a program to purchase oak barrels at a reduced cost by purchasing in quantity and now coordinates that effort each year. Bill goes beyond making suggestions, and steps up to the plate to make them a reality.

For those who have the privilege of knowing Bill and calling him friend, it is a great honor and pleasure. For those who have yet to meet him, if the opportunity arises, take the time to say hi and meet a truly nice, caring person. With a huge thank you for all he so selflessly does, we say thanks and may the Forsch be with you!

Cabernet Sauvignon Mini-Tasting

Saturday, November 14, 2015

6:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Various Host Sites

Our next Mini-Tasting theme is Cabernet Sauvignon. Cabernet Sauvignon is a favorite wine to accompany fine dinners, especially dinners featuring red meats.

Hosts: Mini-Tastings are held at various host sites around Orange County. If you would like to host this event, please email Bill Redding at bill@ocws.org or call him at 949.248.1125. You may need to sign up and pay until hosts are selected. Reimbursement will be made for all host sites.

Locations: Host sites and directions will be announced to those attending approximately one week prior to the event. We try to place you at the location nearest your home or to accommodate your specific site request; however, your assigned host site is also based on the order in which your sign-up is received in the OCWS office. The cost to attend the tasting is $30 for members and $35 for guests.

Dish: Each person attending brings a potluck dish (appetizer, entrée, side dish, or dessert) to serve a small portion to 18 people. The dish ideally should be designed to match the theme of the tasting, in this case Cabernet Sauvignon. Please coordinate your food selection with your host site to assure an appropriate balance of food types served during the evening. There will be a special bottle of wine that evening as a prize for Chef of the Evening. Our winning Chefs of the Evening may have their recipe published on the OCWS website. Please plan on arriving promptly at 6:00 pm so the event can start on time. You are invited to bring your own wine glasses for tasting. If bringing your own wine glasses, keep in mind the wines are served in flights of two.

We are planning a maximum of five sites for this mini-tasting, so the limit is 90 attendees. Due to the high attendance at our Mini-Tasting Programs, we encourage you to sign-up early as sites tend to fill quickly. The cut-off date for online sign-up is Monday, November 9. After this date please contact Bill or the OCWS office to determine availability. The cancellation deadline is November 6 for a refund. After that date, due to the advance purchase of wines, you will not receive a refund unless there is a waiting list.

Winemakers' Group Quarterly Potluck

The Winemakers' Group held its Quarterly Meeting on October 3 at the lovely home of Bill Forsch and Noel DeSota. About 80 people attended the event and enjoyed the views overlooking Lake Forest. The Group devoured fabulous potluck appetizers, entrees, and desserts. Of course, we were also treated to fabulous home wines made by the members of the Winemakers' Group! We also had four new winemakers in attendance with their significant others. It is always great to see new people picking up this fabulous, passion of winemaking!

Before the meeting, Jerry and Kim Guerin, Eddie Petros and Mike Paz tested our wines for sulfur dioxide on our electric analyzer.

Thank you to Bill and Noel for hosting, and to everyone doing the testing for always helping! It was another FABULOUS event!

New Website Update

Vendor selection for the design and development of a new OCWS website is now in its final stages. In attempting to see that no stone was left unturned, ten companies were invited to submit proposals based on detailed specifications provided by us. Of those ten, we received six quotes. Two of the companies were determined to be too inexperienced for our needs and we are now closely scrutinizing the final four to find the perfect fit for the organization.

We anticipate contracting with a company to begin construction of the site this month. The time frame for completion is estimated to be approximately six months. We will continue to provide updates on the status of this very exciting project in future editions of The Wine Press.

2016 Winery Program

Our winery program for 2016 promises wonderful tastings with many well-known names in winemaking. Our schedule is set as follows:

Date	Winemaker	Winery
January 22, 2016	Joel Peterson	Ravenswood
February 5, 2016	Jim Klein	Navarro
March 25, 2016	John Klacking	Double Bond
May 6, 2016	Kent Rosenblum	Rock Wall Wine Company

Affectionately known as the “Godfather of Zin”, Joel Peterson is both an articulate spokesman and a gutsy trendsetter who helped make Zinfandel the phenomenon that it is today. He is a founding Board member and former two-time President of Zinfandel Advocates and Producers (ZAP).

For our February tasting, Jim Klein will discuss the wines of Navarro. Jim’s 2006 Brut Sparkling Wine from Anderson Valley won the Chairman’s Award in the 2015 OC Fair Commercial Wine Competition.

Our March tasting will feature a newer boutique winery named Double Bond. John Klacking established this winery in 2007 and he has produced many award-winning wines. If anyone has had the opportunity to taste his wines, you take a sip and exclaim “Wow! That’s a great wine!”

The May tasting with Kent Rosenblum will celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the Orange County Wine Society. Kent always provides anecdotes about “Sven and Ollie” and always provides an extraordinary tasting of his wines. Be sure to look for some specials we are planning for this auspicious occasion.

In Memory of Mike McNeese

Mike McNeese, a long time member of the Wine Society, was an active member of the Cooks Caucus until he recently moved to Nevada. A handful of the members that worked with Mike and the Cooks Caucus took a moment to recall memories of Mike and how his ideas have continued to have an impact on today's Wine Society events.

"I have so many fond memories of Mike, it is difficult to pick my favorite one. Several membership BBQs ago in 2006, Mike came up with the idea of making New Orleans Crayfish. We discussed it, and I suggested that we use shrimp rather than crayfish because they would be more user-friendly to eat. Mike and I got the shrimp and mussels and he brought his pot and cooker and he prepared some of the best New Orleans style shellfish ever and they were the hit of the event. Mike also came up with the idea of serving deep fried items at our events and supervised their preparation. His creativity and innovative ideas greatly expanded our collective thinking on food items for all of our events.

Every night prior to the BBQ, Mike would come up to the house and help Barbara, me and other Cooks Caucus members chop vegetables, prepare other items for the event and, on occasion, we would work well into the night, and of course, enjoy wine and other assorted libations.

Mike was a great and creative cook, a hard worker and team player for the Cooks Caucus, and a great friend to all of us, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He was a dear and close friend to me. I'm sure as soon as he gets settled into his new place above, he will be coming up with great dishes to be served up there. May God bless him." - Eric Martens

• • •

"One fond memory of Mike's doings with the Cooks Caucus is when he had a restaurant friend of his open his commercial kitchen in West L.A. for the Cooks' Caucus to prep for one of our events. It was so interesting (you should've seen the bread ovens) and lots of fun! And what a sous chef he was! Wow!" - Lynda Edwards

"Mike shared with me that he had worked many years with the Forum and the Lakers. I noticed that he had a Lakers World championship ring! He mentioned that normally each year that they won they would give a ring to 1 person in or around their organization that normally wouldn't receive a ring. He had been the recipient one of those years.

Also, after one of the Laker games he was chatting and drinking with the late Jerry Buss – owner of the Lakers. Late into the night, they started to "brag" on who was the better shooter. At about 4 am, after several more beverages, a big bet was wagered on who was the better shooter. They found their way down to the forum floor and realized the court was not lit. Jerry said, 'I don't know how to turn the lights on, but I could certainly call someone to come and turn them on for us.' They both decided that it would be better to go up and finish the bottle of bourbon!

Mike was a great team player for the Cooks Caucus, a smart worker, and always brought a great attitude to every event I worked with him on. My best to his family." - Bill Forsch

• • •

"Mike was one of the original members of the Cooks Caucus. Mike was the "King of French Fries" and our original deep-fryer chef." - Walt Thurner

"Mike was one of the first Wine Society members who welcomed me into the organization. When we first met at a membership BBQ, despite sweating it out over the grills, he still had a grin on his face and was excited to get to know me. He always had a great outlook on life and lived life from a 'no day but today' view. He'll be missed." - Michelle Philo

2015 Chili Cook-Off Wrap Up

With the threat of 60% chance of rain looming a week prior, Sunday, October 18th pleasantly turned out to be a typical warm, sunny California day in The Courtyard. The day could not have been more perfect.

Lloyd and Liz Corbett did the event set up. Cal and Sue Rietzel covered the tables and did the decorations. By 9:30 am, The Courtyard was ready to welcome the seventeen OCWS member chili cooks to set up their displays and prepare their chilies for judging.

The judging process was overseen by Terry McLean. The seven Judges were volunteers from the Orange Coast College Culinary Arts Program.

The judging of Best Presentation kicked off at 11:15 with the Chili tasting following. After all the votes were tallied and certified by the Judging Committee, the coveted engraved Chili Ladles were presented to:

People's Choice Award – Sam Puzzo & Carol Frank

Traditional First Place – Bob & JaNae Unruh

Traditional Second Place – Dave & Pam Carter

Traditional Third Place – Mike & Rita Kovac

Best Chili with Wine – Virginia Kawai

Best Vegetarian – Cliff & Sara Cornell

Best Chili Without Beans – Jim & Colin Downey

Most Unusual Chili – B.J. & Tina Fornadley

Best Presentation -- Bob & JaNae Unruh

The event opened for general membership at 1:00. In addition to tasting some fantastic homemade chili and having hamburgers and hot dogs prepared by the Cooks' Caucus, the approximate 200 people danced and enjoyed the music of Fly By Night DJ's. Beer was poured by Four Sons Brewery of Huntington Beach and two dance lessons taught by Dance All You Can of Fountain Valley.

Events like this do not happen without a host of volunteers. The volunteers were well coordinated by Jolen Zeroski. A heart-felt "thanks" to the event committee and the many volunteers for a job "well done" and, of course, to our Cooks' Caucus.

Brant Horton had always been disappointed with the entry criteria used by other wine competitions and wanted to conduct a judging of wines readily available in the Orange County marketplace. On May 24, 1976, during a meeting with Jerry Mead, a noted wine columnist, Brant proposed that the Orange County Fair would be an ideal host for a professional competition of Orange County marketplace wines made using only California grapes. On May 27, 1976, they met with the Orange County Fair's General Manager, Ken Fulk, and with the support of Warren Finley, President of the OC Fair Board of Directors, all agreed that a jointly-sponsored Commercial Wine and Homewine Competition would be held starting in 1977.

Brant Horton also recognized that a volunteer organization was needed to provide the staffing to conduct such events. At a meeting on July 23, 1976, at Brant's Wine Rack, he proposed an organization that would co-sponsor both Commercial and Homewine Competitions while also promoting the education and appreciation of wine, winemak-ing, and viticulture. Brant Horton, Jerry Mead, and others went to work to form such an organization that was to be called the Orange County Wine Society. Eventually, Articles of Incorporation were drafted in January 1978 by Brant Horton and William Owen to form a nonprofit charitable and educational corporation under the laws of California including plans for a Wine Scholarship Fund. Fred Basom, Jim Graver, Brant and Kathi Horton, Jerry Mead, William Owen, and Mike Collins signed the initial articles. The articles called for the establishment of bylaws to guide the organization and its membership. The articles were subsequently registered with the California Secretary of State in June 1978 and the Internal Revenue Service approved a tax-exempt status for the OCWS under Section 501(c)(3) in 1980. The group met once a month on the second Friday. As the membership grew, it was proposed that a logo be designed for the OCWS. Dick Hamm won the design contest and it is the same logo used today. A competing logo, the "Purple Foot", was used to make stickers for distribution during the Fair. Early OCWS programs included wine tours at local wineries and food and wine tastings by Judi (Collins) Brady and Jane (McGrath) Goodnight.
